JUDGE DENNY'S GOOD RACE.

The racing at Ideal Park yesterday was lamb-like. All of the winners had something in reserve at the finish. The race of the afternoon was at 9½ furlongs with but four starters. Judge Denny was the "good thing" in it and he won all the way like a gentleman. He was backed from 2 to 1 to 6 to 5 and the McNoughton & Muir people profited well over his victory.
Cougle & Gum's Walkover won his race away off and in the fast time of 1:02¾.
The two-year-old event was an easy thing for Easter Eve, who was at the false price of 3 to 1. ABE FURST ran a shabby race, and Provident a really good one.
A big crowd was out, betting was fair and the day dull and muggy.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Marcus Daly gave Tuberville $2,500 for riding Ogden to the front in the Futurity.

The Fleischmann Stable is to come west and race at Oakley and Latonia this fall.

If "Justified Kicker" will call at this office he will be given some valuable information. No address for reply.

That turf scavenger, the Cincinnati Enquirer, prints a story about the Avondale horses all being taken out of Charley Hughes' stable, and declares that the horses, including Her Excellence, arrived in Cincinnati Monday morning. Yet the latter raced at Ideal Park Tuesday.

The Eastern public have great respect for Cleophas and refer to her as "Mike Dwyer's big white faced filly."

There is much talk of salary cutting at the end of the recent Detroit meeting and differences over the refusal of the higher class officials to accept the cut.

President Williams, of the California Jockey Club, has succeeded in getting the Alameda County Board of Supervisors to pass an ordinance prohibiting book-making and pool-selling anywhere in the county except within racetracks and on local races.
